LOCAL HEROES: PIOPIO RUGBY

The team can be very proud of what they have achieved this year.

Losing just two games, both against Taupo Sports, they secured a home semi final which is a first in over twenty years.

On Saturday the 20th of July, Piopio played Waitete in front of a huge crowd for a spot in the King Country Rugby final.

Also up for grabs was the coveted Dempsey Munro Cup and JR's shield. These are only contested between Piopio and Waitete and both highly treasured.

Unfortunately Piopio lost the semi final to Waitete 26-9.

We have been very fortunate this year to have had grandstands donated by John Anselmi. We now have one located on each side of the field. Our Grassroots Trust and Trust Waikato grant applications were successful and this allowed us to add the safety compliant railings required by Waitomo District Council. White Ridge Contracting were also very efficient in seeing this project through so that our supporters could use this wonderful facility during this season.

The Club is in very good heart with a great group of young men who put their bodies on the line every weekend. There is a fantastic committee who work extremely hard behind the scenes.

Special mention must be made to Gareth Williams for enabling our club to have the grandstands in use this year and to Derek Kloeten for helping Gareth and Gary each home game and having the fields looking so pristine.

We are very lucky to have such supportive sponsors again this year and appreciate how the community gets behind Piopio Rugby Club. Whether it is the big turnouts at home games or those who take time out of their weekends to follow the team on away games – thankyou. It does not go unnoticed by the team and is always a huge motivator.

We are privileged to present a large number of blazers this season for players who met the milestone of playing fifty games for Piopio.

It is a massive sign of commitment and dedication to the club.

The Club would like to congratulate the 2019 recipients: Taie Teriuea, Adam Black, Scott Bradley, Andrew Blackmore, Jeff Davis, Jake Hiriaki, Luke Draper and Bradly Jeffries. Piopio Rugby Club prize giving is on Friday 9th August.

Familiar Face New at Hynds

Hynds has been operating in our local district for 20 odd years. Recently Jim Dyson has been appointed manager, returning him to the Te Kuiti Branch, where he has already worked a couple of years in the past. Jim is looking forward to reconnecting with some and meeting others within the district.

In his youth Jim worked on the Bryant farm in Mahoenui and even ran out on the field for the Piopio Wanderers social rugby team a few times.

When Jim married Jude they shifted down to Wharekauri Station near Bennydale, where Jim shepherded.

Prior to Hynds Jim has been a writer in the Royal New Zealand Navy serving on HMNZS Otago patrolling our new fishing zones back then to running a Tegal hatchery in Drury, a chicken livestock rep for Harvey Farms, managing a broiler farm in Raglan to starting and running a successful agriculture and pasture spraying business as well as keeping involved within the rural sector from time to time.

Now having been with Hynds for almost 19 years, Jim has a wealth of knowledge in relation to product range and uses and problem solving.

Within Hynds, Jim has worked in the factory in Hamilton to managing Pukekohe, Manukau and Rotorua branches along with overseeing the Hynds Rotorua factory.

A keen fisherman Jim looks forward to getting back out West after fishing for a time on the East coast.

Jim and Jude now live in Whakamaru enjoying the lifestyle that area offers.

If you are coming to Te Kuiti, stop by, say hi and check out what is available.

We are currently overstocked with Farmgrade concrete pipe and at the Hynds Te Kuiti branch there are some great deals to be had in concrete pipe ranging from 375 to 1800 diameter.

PIOPIO HEALTH AND FITNESS GROUP – JUST DO IT!

A couple of local ladies began training together at the gym and over the course of time they realised they had the same interest; wanting to help others in the community get healthy and feel good about themselves.

They put out some feelers, asked around and now together have a small but determined group of people starting on their own personal wellbeing journey.

It is a very casual gathering of like-minded, non-judgmental supportive locals who each have their own goal of what they want to achieve.

Sarah and Anne are both qualified Personal Trainers so use their learnings and experience to answer every question. They try to cover different topics each week depending on what issues have arisen.

At the moment, they meet at the Piopio Community Recreation Centre at 6pm on Sundays. (You don't need to be a member to come along).

The group leads with what they want and need, covering the basics of health and fitness.

So if you want to join the gym or are already a member but unsure or not confident in how to use the equipment...

If you want to lose weight but don't know how or even where to start... Come along and get motivated for the next best stage of your life. Just do it! Queries to Sarah Good 021 1077725

ARIA SCHOOL PRESENTS....

Meet The Cobblestones, just an ordinary Stone Age family of cave folk living on Stoney Street, Rock Bottom! However, when cave boy inventor Bobby Cobblestone hatches his very first good idea, he's whisked off to work for none other than the beautiful celebrity Lady Lava! Unfortunately, BC is soon up to his neanderthal neck in trouble when he discovers his new boss hides a dark secret that will rock Rock Bottom to its foundations.

With mysterious monsters terrorising the town and a volatile volcano ready to blow its top, can BC become a little boulder and hatch a plan to save his family, his friends and his very own precious Rock Bottom? Only time will tell...

A cast of crazy cave folk join in the neolithic naughtiness, not to mention a flock of prehistoric birds, two dippy dinosaurs, a vacuum-cleaning mammoth and a sabre-tooth tiger called Tiddles! With eight toe-tapping songs to get you rocking like a rolling stone and a puntastic script as sharp as a flint, one thing's for sure - the Stone Age rocks!

 - 14th August Upper Mokau/Mangapehi meeting; 1pm venue tbc
 - 15th August Risk & Mitigation Workshop Mangaotaki - tbc
 - 22nd August Risk & Mitigation Workshop Awakino - Rob Duders, Mahoenui - details to follow
- Please RSVP to Anna on kcrivercare@gmail.com or 0274900501 if you wish to attend the workshops; numbers are limited. I have been working on a proposal for KCRC to get some funding from MPI to support our work helping farmers and sub-catchment groups doing great work to improve the environment and the wellbeing of our rural communities.

We may also put a group "Partnership" application into 1Billion Trees for native trees if there is sufficient interest - let me know if you want more info.

A few of you have called about projects on farm - mostly fencing and planting waterways. We are waiting for details from Waikato Regional council around funding. The Hill Country Erosion fund (HCEF) which WRC administrators will extend to cover the entire Mokau catchment as well as Awakino and Marokopa from September this year. This will be a great opportunity to get some on farm work underway throughout our catchment areas. Adrian Jepson (Adrian.Jepson@waikatoregion.govt.nz) is the contact for these projects. The purpose/focus of this joint WRC-MPI funded programme is soil conservation and erosion risk/control in hill country catchments. We understand it will include riparian planting for the 2019/20 financial year.

Waikato Regional Council elections are coming up - it would be great to have a couple of candidates from down this way - please encourage anyone you know who may be interested in a new challenge.

Anyone looking for an excuse to get out of the rain, a great reason to spend time in the office is to complete our KCRC Google Info form. The more farm business' information we can gather the more robust and representative our data becomes. Please help us to help you & your community! Get in touch and I will get a copy out to you.

Memories of horses in a lifetime

By Peter Holbrook

After a year back in England – mainly working on the new motorways fencing with an Irish gang – I decided to return to New Zealand. I arrived back in Auckland in March 1964 and headed back to the King Country, working in the Mangapehi Sawmill to begin with, and then to a shepherding job on the Hobern property at Kopaki.

In December I began working as a shepherd general on the Dawson's property at Paemako. I was able to buy and sell my own horses and break-in horses from other farms. At this time I broke in three or four horses for Puketiti station which were trucked out to me and then ridden back into the homestead through Waitoru Station.

At lambing time, during the mid to late sixties, all the surrounding farms were mostly patrolled on horse back with a heading dog in attendance to catch ewes in trouble. The ewes were mainly Romney and prone to being cast with a higher percentage of difficult births. Moving into the 1970s, the easy care Perendales became more popular and the two-wheel motor bikes started to take over.

During the horse time, Piopio held a horse fair in July prior to the lambing season. This was very popular with the horse-minded section of the community.

The sale began with a number of dependable hacks, demonstrated at a brisk walk with raincoats flapping. A fast-walking horse that would stand with the reins down and then carry a sheep was the most prized. Following these were several pens of unbroken horses which were looked over for their potential it was always satisfying to select a good one and make a good hack out of it to sell on later at a profit.

Unlike machinery, horses improve with good handling and the work they did was a bonus instead of fuel and depreciation of mechanical transport.

Although there was the inevitable decline in the use of horses for stockwork in the seventies I obtained work in the contract breaking of hacks on sheep stations mainly around Taumarānui, as well as my yearly visit to Puketiti station out from Piopio. I enjoyed this as once the horse has been successfully ridden by a shepherd and passed by the manager it was over to them to keep them in work until reliable.

Breaking horses for individual owners was often unsatisfactory. Often they did not get enough work and developed a fault through lack of it, and the breaker was asked to return and sort them out again. I am not a great fan of some of the modern methods in vogue today, in my experience most horses sooner or later challenged the rider and that was the day the rider must win with determination – after this most horses accepted their lot and became useful mounts.

Most of the station's bred their own horses and kept a stallion and mares which had been worked when younger. There was also a series of two year olds and yearlings to be handled in preparation. I always cold shod the new horses before riding them, it had a quieting effect and prevented footsoreness when they needed enough work to confirm good habits.

I am a great believer in leg roping until the horse thoroughly understands it. They are much easier for a vet to handle and less likely to damage themselves if caught up in wire etc.

There is so much more I could write about. Horses are an endless subject with countless anecdotes to be recounted. I admire the younger generation, mostly female, who spend endless time and money with their sport horses.

However, these animals are basically pampered pets. My world which has largely gone is one I remember with respect. A station without horses is only a shadow now, merely a profit making organisation for the shareholders.

This is the last instalment of the popular 'Memories of Horses in a Lifetime' series... but it won't be the end of BirdTalk's local history specials! If you have some life writing you'd like to share in BirdTalk, please drop us a line at piopiobirdtalk@gmail.com and we'll see what we can do.

Piopio Community Fruit & Veg Stand: The Latest Surplus

The Community Fruit & Veg Stand continues to be the grateful recipient of surplus grown in our local gardens and orchards. In winter more non-perishable tinned and packaged foods are contributed as well, plus those fantastic regular contributions of different breads and rolls.

We're seeing a more sustainable level of contributions this winter than we did our first year--lots of citrus, herbs and winter greens, along with beautiful pots of home-made blueberry and raspberry jams. But that being said, things do turnover quickly! Clean recycled jars for jam makers are always welcome up top.

Trust everyone is starting to think about their spring and summer veggie gardens and ordering seeds. I start my tomato seeds in the glasshouse mid-August. And yes, have ordered plenty of black cherry tomato seeds by popular demand. Also Purple Cherokee, Oxheart, Black Oxheart and Black of Tula. "Big Red Heirloom" seeds were saved from last year in the hot water cupboard. Hopefully the tomato gods will cooperate with plenty of surplus seedlings plants to share.

I try to let people know what's on offer daily, and when contributions are needed, via the public Piopio Community Fruit & Veg Stand Facebook page. If you have any questions don't hesitate to get in touch. Thanks for your continued support and help keeping the stand tidy—it truly does "take a village!" Karen Barrett

Charlotte Barclay wins 2019 Flash Fiction Contest

You might think it's hard to tell a great story in less than a page, but 12-year-old Charlotte Barclay has done just that! Charlotte's winning entry starts off at a rainy King Country netball game.

Just a Normal Game in the King Country

Splash! My shoes skid to a stop as I hold my hands out, eyes squinting through the downpour, hair clinging to my sodden face, hoping to get the ball...

Suddenly another player bowls into me roughly. I rub the "to come" bruises on my arms and see the hoop where everyone is.

This is how we play in the King Country!!

The ball appears. I jump to grab it but as I do so, my shoes decide to betray my faith and as I fall to the ground, I hear a slight 'crack' and an agonising pain in my left ankle...

I lie there groaning like a drama queen but this time I'm not. The pain is real and as I lie on the hard concrete with the rain dripping around me- rain or my tears?

I don't care, all I care about is if I can still play netball...

Congratulations Charlotte!
